METRO INCREASES PAY, BENEFITS TO RECRUIT MORE DRIVERS
Career fair planned for Nov. 13 at Queensgate Division

CINCINNATI – A job application could result in paid training, a competitive starting wage, and a signing bonus at Metro’s upcoming career fair this Saturday, Nov. 13, in Queensgate.

As part of our ongoing efforts to address a continued driver shortage and to help keep up with expanding service, Metro is actively recruiting new bus operators to join our team. Metro operators enjoy competitive pay and benefits, including:

- Paid training at $18 per hour, which includes CDL training and reimbursement for CDL licensing fees.
- Once trained, a starting wage of $19.55 per hour
- $2,000 signing bonus upon completion of training and 95-day probationary period
- Potential to earn up to $27 per hour within first five years

Metro also provides comprehensive health and dental benefits, retirement benefits and free transportation passes for a spouse and dependents.

Those interested in this opportunity are invited to Metro’s upcoming career fair on Saturday, Nov. 13 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at our Queensgate Division (1401 Bank Street).

No RSVP is required, but interested parties are encouraged to submit an application at go-metro.com/careers prior to attending, if possible.
